

Eileen V. Stangle

March 10, 1927 - January 27, 2015

Eileen V. Stangle, 87, of Midline Road Town of Perth, died Tuesday afternoon January 27, 2015 at St. Mary's Healthcare with her loving family at her side.

She was born in Schenectady on March 10, 1927 a daughter of Stillwell and Isabelle Sullivan Miller and was a 1945 graduate of Burnt Hills-Ballston Lake High School. Eileen was a lifelong area resident.

For several years, she owned and operated the former Rush Inn which was located on the Great Sacandaga Lake. Later, Eileen was employed with the NYS Department of Corrections in Albany for twenty two years, retiring in 1987.

Mrs. Stangle attended St. Joseph's Church in Broadalbin. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and the VFW Auxiliary, both in Broadalbin.

Eileen enjoyed camping and being outdoors. Her greatest delight was spending time with her family and friends, whom she adored.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her former husband, Thomas Rush, who died in 1998; and her second husband, Donald Stangle, who died in 1995.

Survivors include a daughter, Mary Provo, of Amsterdam; two grandsons, Donald "Mike" Blowers (Terry) and David J. Sowle (Kristen); eight great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; several nieces, nephews, and cousin; and her lifelong loving friend, Donna Peck.

Eileen's family would like to thank the staff of the 4th Floor at St. Mary's Healthcare for the loving care and compassion that was given to her.

Services will be held at the convenience of the family. Burial will held in the spring at St. Mary's Cemetery, Galway. Memorial contributions may be made to the Community Hospice of Amsterdam, in care of the funeral home. Arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc. 111 County Highway 106, Johnstown.
