“ I was 16 when my brother was 26 on the day my brother brought me to Cranberry Creek Parsonage. And on that day "June 10, 2001 @ 3:05 in the afternoon", he passed from death unto life. On Friday, he passed from life unto everlasting life in beautiful, perfect, sinless, glorious bliss. I have hope that someday I will see him again. So this isn't goodbye brother, its see you later.

“ When we were in 4th and 5th grade Albert came back to help me finish the last 10 miles of the 50 mile walk a thon after he jogged and ran it. Looks like he made it to the finish line first again. He was always faster and stronger. This time I'll walk in the gates looking for him after this life ends. He set a great example to finish strong but right now a piece of my heart is missing.
