“ Alice Hopes is a relative of mine on the Kenyon side of the family and as you may already know, she is one of the most giving people that you could ever meet. She is also a shining example of what a Christian should be. This world needs more people like Alice and Dick Hopes and she will be missed! Alice is now with our Savior, Jesus Christ. God Bless Alice and Dick Hopes.

My sincere condolences to Dick, Lorraine, Elizabeth and families. Alice was such a lovely person. I looked forward to receiving her beautiful, hand-crafted Christmas cards every year. She never forgot me even though it had been years and years since we had seen each other. My heart hurts.
