Alice Marie Taggart

July 6, 1935 — July 2, 2020

84 years old

Beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, passed away July 2, 2020, at Beaufort Memorial Hospital, with her family by her side. Alice was born in Gloversville, New York.

She spent her young life in the Gloversville school system, where she graduated in 1953. She was active in high school, playing the violin in the school orchestra as well as a drum majorette in the school band. After high school, she worked as a secretary at Taylor Awning in Gloversville, before moving to Broadalbin.

Alice and her husband owned and operated the Old Lonesome Lodge, in North Broadalbin, for 22 years. She went on to also own and operate Taggart's Ice Cream store for an additional 10 years. Alice worked for the Broadalbin-Mayfield cemetery for over 30 years as the Secretary of Treasury. By far, her greatest accomplishment was as the manager at Petoff Garden Apartments for 28 years. Alice recently retired in March of 2020 and moved to

South Carolina to be closer to her family.

Alice was involved in the Presbyterian Church in Broadalbin, New York for many years.

She is pre-deceased in death by her mother, Marguerite M. Stutzke, and stepfather, Martin Stutzke.

She is survived by her husband of 53 years, Alexander Ronald Taggart, of Broadalbin, New York, brother Russell Hamilton (Judy) of Syracuse, New York, son Michael Bump of Albany, New York and daughter Beth Taggart of Beaufort, South Carolina, grandchildren Kayleigh Smith (Richard), Bethany Bump (David), Frederick David, Eden Robbins (Derek), Dillon Canfield, and Leilani Birch, as well as great-grandchildren Nicolas, Reegan, and Brayden and multiple cousins.

Alice was involved in charity work her entire life. Remembrances can be made to St. Judes or the American Cancer Society.

In order to honor Alice and Ron's wishes to be buried together, burial services to be determined at a later date.
