

Barbara R. Dingman

November 9, 1939 - September 27, 2021

Barbara R. Dingman, 81, formerly of Gloversville, passed away peacefully at her home in Maryville, TN on September 27, 2021. Her final days were spent, as she desired, surrounded by her family.

She was born in Manhattan on November 9, 1939, a daughter of Lawrence and Catherine Scully Hebert and was raised in Ballston Spa. Barbara was a 1957 graduate of Burnt Hills-Ballston Lake High School. Following her graduation, she proudly served in the US Air Force and was stationed in Colorado Springs, CO.

Mrs. Dingman lived in Gloversville for many years and was employed at Elton Leather. She moved to Tennessee in 1989 and became a licensed real estate agent. Barbara owned Friendship Realty until retiring in 2015, at age 75.

She was a remarkable, strong, determined, and fiercely independent woman and will be missed by her family every day.

Barbara was a proud and devoted mother to her five sons, Edward (Tracy), Brian (Kelly), William (Deborah), Floyd (Heather), and Wayne (Nicole); a loving and thoughtful grandmother to her eight grandchildren, Ashley, Kelsie, Ryan, Matthew, Ian, Landon, Taylor, and Parker, as well as her two great-grandchildren, Kaylee and Ricky. She knew and often said that she was blessed with a wonderful family legacy.

In accordance with her wishes, there will be no services.

Her family gratefully acknowledges the doctors and nurses at Blount Memorial Hospice and to Edward and Nicole for taking such good care of her in her final

Local arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., Johnstown, NY.
