“ I met Barbara, or "Barb" as we used to call her, in 2018 at my late auntie's, Brunette Halaby-Kazzi. We became friends and remained in touch through messages, calls and Facebook posts since. She was one of the kindest people I ever met, caring, loving and giving. When I visited from Canada, she used to cook some of her special dishes, such as kibbeh niyeh, which consists of crushed wheat, minced meat and Mediterranean spices and eaten raw. Rest in peace my dear friend, Barb. You're already missed and will never be forgotten.

“ Still hard to think "Bobbie" is gone. We bonded for so many years before and after her marriage to Bob. I remember being at their wedding. I remember her at Aunt Tillie's planning for it. I remember so much of the Simons on 5th Ave. I remember her two brothers. I guess I'll remember!!!....I won't forget. Bye my friend.
