

Carole Anne Tomlinson

March 7, 1960 - September 12, 2020

Carole Anne Tomlinson, 60, of Ballston Lake, died Saturday, September 12, 2020 at St. Mary's Healthcare, Amsterdam.

She was born in Hudson, NY on March 7, 1960 a daughter of the late Edward and Kathryn Bogarsky Morrison and lived in the Ballston Lake area since 1998.

Carole became a registered nurse and served the sick and infirm for more than three decades. She never stopped caring or learning. She attained a bachelor of arts degree in criminal justice, and later a bachelor of science in nursing degree, culminating in a master of science degree in nursing.

Carole began to get sick in 2013 and was forced to retire in 2016. She was diagnosed with two forms of cancer in December 2017. She fought the brave fight, enduring terrible pain until her death.

She is the mother of two adult children, Kathryn Marie Rock (Eric) Kutny, of Guilderland, and Michael Ambrose Rock of Schenectady; and has a granddaughter, Kara Kutny, of Guilderland; all of whom survive.

She is survived by her husband, author/editor/photographer, Shawn M.

Tomlinson, of Ballston Lake. Carole served as muse to her husband, encouraging him to take risks and push ahead to write many books. Carole painted the covers for several of his books and for the magazines he edited.

The two were married Jan. 7, 2008 at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Broadalbin.

Carole herself was the author and illustrator of two children's books, Elephant

Dreams and The Flying Dog. Elephant Dreams was reprinted in full color in the December 2019 issue of Phenomenal Stories magazine. The Flying Dog will appear in a future issue of the magazine as tribute to her talent as an artist and storyteller.

Carole is also survived by a brother, Edward (Cindy) Morrison of Ballston Lake; two sisters, MaryLou Casey, of Saratoga Springs, and Kate (David) Balder of Stratford; her beloved cousin Peter Bogarsky; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Johnstown.

Memorial donations may be made in care of the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

MK

“ I Love n Miss you Carole so much. I miss your Beautiful Paintings and our talks on the phone. We had said nice Prayers together. You taught me alot that I didn't know about our Religion. I thank you for that. So happy to have known you these past years. You did put up a brave fight for your Life. God takes the Best. We'll be together again when God calls me home. Not saying goodbye but see you later my Sister in Christ 🥺❤️🥺🌸 Love your friend n sister Margie Kuhn❤️❤️❤️

Marjorie C. Kuhn - September 27, 2020 at 12:11 AM

MK

“ I met Carole on FB a week after she was diagnosed with Cancer. We hit it off right away. We exchanged phone numbers and spoke quite a few times. I told her my Mom was an R.N. also. Carole was happy to know that. Her Paintings she sent to me very often made me feel Happy. I was going through Depression. She helped me get through it. I miss her so much and her Beautiful Paintings. God gave me such a Wonderful Caring friend. I thank him for sending her into my Life. I Love you Dearest Carole❤️🥺🌻 Love Margie Kuhn❤️🥺🙏🙏🌸🌸🌸🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏 Shawn I'm still Praying for you and your Family🙏🙏

Marjorie C. Kuhn - September 26, 2020 at 11:48 PM