

Carolyn May Wilson

May 1, 1941 - December 2, 2023

Carolyn May Wilson, 82, of Gloversville, passed away on Saturday, December 2, 2023, at the Fulton Center, with family by her side.

She was born in Gloversville on May 1, 1941, a daughter of Alfred and Martha Dingman Foster and was educated locally.

Mrs. Wilson worked at the former Diana Knitting Mill, Coleco Industries, and later at Somerset Industries.

She enjoyed nothing more than spending time with her family, cooking, baking, coloring, and crocheting special things for her loved ones.

Carolyn was married to the love of her life, Douglas L. Wilson, on January 12, 1960. Sadly, he died on March 17, 2018. In addition to her husband and parents, she was predeceased by two brothers, Alfred Foster, Jr. and Charles Foster; a sister, Betty Crowter; and a special niece, Oceanmarie Foster.

Survivors include six sons, Douglas (Lindsay) Wilson, Gordon Wilson, Charles Wilson, Jamie Wilson, Daniel (Cherice) Wilson, and John (Laura) Wilson, all of Gloversville; three daughters, Mary Wilson and Tammy Wilson, both of Gloversville, and Debra Wilson of Troy; three sisters, Shirley Foster, Terry Lee Foster, and Elizabeth Foz, all of Gloversville; several grandchildren and greatgrandchildren; several nieces and nephews; and a special niece, goddaughter, and her namesake, Carol Vosburgh.

Calling hours will be held on Wednesday, at the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc. 111 County Highway 106 (Corner of Route 29 & Black Street), Johnstown from 4 – 5:30pm. A time for memory sharing will follow at 5:30 pm. The burial will take place in the spring at the Mayfield Union Rural Cemetery.

“ My dearest godmother my beautiful Aunt. I love and miss you so much. I am forever grateful and totally blessed to have been your namesake and most of all your goddaughter. I'm really struggling with losing you. I have so many memories with you growing up from staying at your house to you teaching me so many things. I loved to bake with you and go Berry picking to make pies. You were very famous for your baked goods. Please watch over us all. My mom your baby sister that looked up to you as another mom is really struggling as well. Kiss everyone up there for me and tell them I love and miss them. Gone but never forgotten I promise to keep your memory alive. I love you always and forever your name sake your goddaughter your niece Carol May 💕
