“ So sorry to hear about Cliff's passing. He has many friends and will be missed. I reflected back on my good times with Cliff and would like to share a few:

Stopping in for Pizza (unannounced) on my motor cycle (I'm sure Mark and Brian will remember), Skiing at Gore in fresh powder, First time in a "racing" canoe and dumping into ice cold water (several times), Roasting Cliff at his 60th birthday party with the ski vest and wig, Motorcycle rides around the lake, Cliff and Betty stopping by our camp in their boat ,Looking for signs of his stolen boat at the lake, Many lunch times at the Mill Rock (avoiding the boss on the way back into work), And last but not least, many practical jokes.
