“ David was an unusually humble man who had a passion to care for the disadvantaged. he helped youth fix cars, bikes and broken toys. Teaching them skills to carry into adulthood. David displayed kindness to elderly in numerous ways when a need presented. He showed his family grace, dignity and courage as he fought his illness. David loved all his family with unconditional love and provided refuge when needed. He showed the youth in our family what love and marriage should look like and how to treat your mate. I am sure God received him with open arms. RIP my brother. Be well in the presence of God. You are very missed.
