“ My heart is broken reading that Dean passed away. We were friends in high school and although we lost touch after we all graduated, he has always stayed in my heart. My deepest condolences to his mother and brothers.
May God be with you all.

“ *Alice Marie,
I am so sorry for the loss of your son, and I wish there were words I could write that would ease your pain. I lost my daughter last December to cancer at the age of 58. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
