“ Dennis, Nikki, Pete, Phil & grandsons I'm thinking of you all, I've been going down memory lane with my relationship with Debbie, though we haven't been so close these past few years I remember back to when I first meant Debbie she welcomed me into the family with open arms, Debbie helped planned mine and Russ's wedding and that beautiful Cake she made for us was the best cake ever I will never forget it. She was all 4 of my kids favorite, Matt and Tim used to call her Grandma Debbie when they were little lol she always spoiled them with little gifts and sweets, she was a good kind woman and will be greatly missed, We all loved her dearly and you all were so blessed to have her. I Love you all 🙏 Fly High Angel till we meet again ❤️

“ Memories of Deb are of laughter for myself and Bobbiejo. Each week, she and Bobbiejo would talk on the phone at least twice and I would always hear a lot of laughing and even that typical giggling and it would bring a smile to my face. Deb has treated me (Karen) like a true sister for 18 years with so much respect and love.. for her, I'll be grateful for the sister I never had. Every year she would bake for Bobbiejo's birthday and make fudge and of course I would eat most of it as Deb had the most talent in her skills!! Her laughter or actually her giggles I will miss greatly and her sense of love for her family with Dennis, her children, and especially her grandchildren! Ben and Tom are amazing and Deb would always tell Bobbiejo and myself how proud of them she was! Deb's heart is pure and she is one of the most courageous women I've met. I am honored that I was able to share these 18 years as a "sister like" person with her!

“ When I first met Deb it was with her mom. Pat. Pat and I went to church together and it was thru her I met Deb. I instantly knew she was a genuine good person. My instincts were right. I attended some family parties and got to meet some of the family. I was impressed with her ability to create the most beautiful cakes. Better than the bakery, She put her love in each one. She also was good with crafts and we saw her talent there. I am sure she will be baking and crafting with Heaven's Angels. RIP, my friend! Dottie Richeson

i met Deb and Dennis when they moved next door to us she was a wonderful kind neighbor Dennis always had a big garden she would share the tomatoes and other veggies with us. I loved her laugh it was so genuine. When she and Dennis moved she kept up with us and after my husband passed she would ask me to come and visit and have dinner with them but life gets in the way we get busy. I am so thankful that Dottie and I went to visit her when she was still at home we talked and laughed it was a great day she loved the flowers we brought her. Then of course the last visit with her in the hospital she said she knew we were there I sure hope she did I told her I loved her. She is now with God and one of his sweet angels. I am sorry Dennis Nicky Pete and family for your loss of a beautiful kind Wife Mother and Grandmother but she is with you in spirit RIP Deb you are missed
