“ Dominick was one of the pioneering members of Glove Cities (later, Kingsboro) Assembly of God church. In 1998, he was the first coordinator of the pulpit committee that eventually led to my service as the pastor of Kingsboro Assembly of God for 15 years. I always appreciated Dominick's heart and humor.

My heartfelt sympathies to all of Dominick's family and friends, I grieve with you, but I know that TODAY, he is with Jesus!

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of Dominic DiGiacomo, from our cousins who now live in Florida, The thing I remembered the most about the twins as they were the same age is our only brother Jack who passed in 1954. Dom was always a perfect gentlemen and a devoted cousin to the family. He will be missed Katherine D'Errico Cozzolino and Salvatore.

“ I remember my very first time meeting Dom (at church) - he introduced himself and asked "What's your name? " So I told him Barbara and he said "You have such a beautiful name, I'll never forget it" I thought I was special until he introduced me to his beautiful wife, Barbara, 15 minutes later. We always laughed about that...prayers to the whole family at this difficult time. He was an amazing man.
