“ Kristen & Kiddo's: There are no words that I can say that are going to even begin to dim the amount of pain that any of you are feeling right now so I wont even try to. Kristen, to you the only thing that I can say is this, you found a once in a life time love that you will be able to carry with you the rest of your days, just not in the way you planned. Every time you see an unexplained rainbow, or feel a random gust of wind it's him saying hi. Kiddo's, you were blessed with and still are.....with two parents that love you both very much. Be strong together with your Mama, because the three of you are going to need each other.

“ To Rose and her family,

My thoughts and prayers are with you all, although we have not been in touch as often as we once did as kids. The love I have for you and your family has never changed.
I very sad to hear of the loss of Donald, we grew up together, and I spent many of summers at their home. Needless to say I have so many great memories that I will always hold in my heart. May your good memories and the love you have for Donald, help ease your pain in this difficult time. No one can ever take away your pain of loss, so please keep a good support system as you heal. I'm hear if you should need anything!
Your family are in my thoughts and payers.
