“ Betty was a next door neighbor when we all had homes on Sacandaga Lake and I will never forget what a nice family they were. My sisters and I were kids and played with Annette and Tom and I have great memories of those times. It sounds like she had a wonderful life with loving family and friends. My deepest condolences to her family and may she Rest In Peace. Sharon Intilli

“ I will always remember how sweet Mr and Mrs Crawford were to us Intilli girls every summer at the lake. And playing with Annette and Tom almost every day each summer was always a highlight of our summer vacation. My sincere condolences to the family. I'm happy to see she lived a good long life.
