

Florence E. Campbell

November 14, 1930 - February 7, 2026

Florence E. Campbell, age 95, of Hobart, IN and most recently of Gloversville, NY, passed away on Saturday, February 7, 2026, at Mountain Valley Hospice in Gloversville.

She was a lifetime member of Evergreen Memorial Baptist Church in Indiana and appreciated the friendship of the congregation. Florence worked as a switchboard operator for Indiana Bell and for the Radisson Hotel & Holiday Star Theater.

She enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren, bowling and roller skating, and was a lifelong avid Cubs fan.

In addition to her parents, Florence was predeceased by her loving husband of 58 years, Richard Campbell; two sons, Randy and Richard Campbell; and six siblings.

Survivors include four children, Lynn (Mike) Lair of Gloversville, NY, Jeffrey (Jill) Campbell of Hamburg, MI, Douglas Campbell of Calabash, NC, and Amy Campbell (Matt Houser) of Sarasota, FL; six grandchildren, Kelly (Steve), Kelsey, Ashlyn (Leroy), Richard (Hannah), Wyatt, and Dylan; five great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service and burial will take place at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care, 108 Steele Ave., Gloversville, NY 12078 or to Evergreen Memorial Baptist Church, 3900 Montgomery Street, Hobart, IN 46342.

“ Lynn and family, So sorry for your loss. Flo was extremely special. It was a pleasure taking care of her at the Sanford Home. Our time through out the day weather it was 8 hours or 16 she was sure to keep you busy. Our banter between the Cubs and the Yankees were something else. Again so sorry for your loss. Nicole
