

James E. Moore

December 6, 2019

James “Jim” E. Moore, 73, of Broadalbin passed away on Friday, December 6, 2019 at Albany Medical Center due to complications following surgery with his loving family surrounding him.

He was born in Amsterdam, NY a son of Gerald D. and Marion Vandenburg Moore and was a graduate of Broadalbin High School.

He also served four years in the US Air Force.

Jim had a long career as an electrical lineman with Niagara Mohawk, later known as National Grid, retiring in the Fall of 2004. Jim spent his retirement years traveling with his wife in their fifth wheel, often taking the roads less traveled. He especially enjoyed Trap Shooting on special occasions with his son. Jim also enjoyed the time he spent volunteering at the historical Fish House Community Center.

He will be remembered for his quiet, reserved personality and known for his quick dry wit.

Survivors include his wife of fifty years, Audrey; a daughter, Kellie (Kevin) Barkley of Galway, NY; a son, Scott (Shanthi) Moore of Atlanta, GA; four granddaughters, Emilie (Donald) Sherbert of VA, Karley Barkley of Galway; Kelsey Barkley of MD and Amrutha Renganathan of GA; a grandson, Alex Barkley of CT; and a cherished great grandson, Caden Sherbert; two sisters, Jeanne Moore of CO and Geri Stead of FL; an aunt; two nieces; a nephew; several cousins; and his long time hunting buddies Garth and “Jim Bob One”. In accordance with Jim’s wishes, there will be no services. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to the Fish House Fish and Game Club, of which Jim was a charter member, in care of the funeral home. Arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., 111 County Highway 106, Johnstown, NY 12095.
