“ *Jeremy and family,
So very sorry to hear of Joe’s passing. It seems like yesterday that I met him and had many great times with him; especially, with Debbie and Elaine at Mickey’s and four-wheeling.*

I’ll never forget how initially he didn’t like me because I was from Boston and gave me a hard time because I didn’t say my “R’s.” But eventually we became good friends.

He was a great guy with a gentle heart. May happy memories warm your hearts and keep him near. May God’s peace comfort you.

*With Love,
Nadine Amato*
