“ Sue and the Mendetta Family, There are no words to describe your loss. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Josh was an amazing person and young man. He made summer daycamp at the YMCA fun and exciting. We never knew what we would hear from him on any given day. He was a ray of sunshine every day and we all looked forward to seeing him, even when he was a little mischievous.....Lisa Barker

“ Josh was a large part of our family for many years. We spent many holidays and summers with him at camp. My late husband loved when Josh made his special jerky. I was honored when Josh agreed to serve as a pall bearer for Patrick. My heart breaks into a thousand pieces every time I think of your great loss. I will keep both Josh and your family in my prayers. Midge Halse

“ Dear Mendetta Family:

On behalf of the entire Upstate New York (UNY) Transportation Security Administration (TSA) workforce, please accept our very sincere and heartfelt condolences for the recent untimely and tragic loss of your son, Josh. In times of such sudden, unexpected, and heartbreaking circumstances, there are no words of comfort that could possibly assuage the heavy burden of the emotions you and your entire family are experiencing. I cannot begin to imagine the depth of your grief, but I would like you to know that I and the entire UNY workforce extend our deepest sympathies to you and your entire family.

Your son Josh was loved and held in such high regard by so many of his fellow Officers. Many considered him a mentor and role model and strived to adopt his professional approach to his screening duties. He was fully committed to the mission and took a great sense of pride in always executing it in a skilled, proficient manner. In addition to his regular duties, he was also involved in the Vehicle Fleet Coordinator position. The supervisors who worked with him in this capacity always mentioned how they could count on his expertise and hard work, noting that he was always willing to go the extra mile. I also understand that Josh was actively pursuing a career in law enforcement and that he felt this vocation was his true calling. I can assure you that in his capacity as a Transportation Security Officer, he served nobly and with a great sense of pride as he carried out the critical mission of Aviation Security.

When we lose someone so young and vibrant as Josh in the prime of his life, it can be difficult, if not seemingly impossible to pick up the pieces. However, as time goes on, it is my sincerest wish that the knowledge that your son will always be dearly remembered by all those that knew him for his smile, sense of humor, and joyful spirit, can somehow help ease the pain you are experiencing and help to mend the heartbreak.

If there is anything we can do, please let us know

With deepest sympathies,

*Bart R. Johnson
Federal Security Director*

“ I am a supervisor at TSA and had the pleasure of working with your son. Child loss is the worst pain imaginable. Our boys will forever be at peace and smiling down on us. Right now there are no words that can ease the pain but from one bereaved parent to another, I hope that you can feel the love and support

“ Josh was one of the first people I met at TSA. He was always smiling and willing to help in any way he could. We shared a mutual love of guns and dogs. He would always make me laugh with his many stories and opinions. We are very sad at TSA with the loss of such a great person and friend. He has left an imprint on all our hearts. He was one of a kind, and we will miss him dearly. Rest In Peace, my friend.

“ When I heard his name on the news, I was so hoping it wasn't the little boy who we met while camping at North Hampton. We met Roger and Sue also and immediately became friends. We have since lost touch, but still have so many memories of our son, Eric, and Josh playing together. Lou and I are so sorry for your loss. Can't even imagine what you are all going through. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I had the pleasure to work with Josh at TSA. He was one of the first employees to welcome me to the job. Josh was so helpful to me and was always patient with me when I asked for help. My heart breaks over his passing. Please know that in his short life he touched many people and made a difference in our lives. May God bless his family. “ Josh was one of a kind. For being so young, he had an old soul and so much passion for what he believed in. I loved our discussions at work about current affairs, snowflakes, and of course his conspiracy theories that I think he mostly put out there to get a rise out of people. He was smart, funny, and always made me smile. I looked forward to working with him because I knew no matter how bad my day had been he'd have the right thing to say to make me laugh. He had such a great attitude about life, so positive and confident, the world lost a good man Monday night. I will miss him dearly. My prayers to his family and friends...I'm so very sorry for what your going through. 💕💕
