

Leonard R. Stangle

October 25, 1940 - January 11, 2020

Leonard R. Stangle, 79, of County Highway 106, Amsterdam passed away Saturday January 11, 2019 at St. Mary's Healthcare with his loving family at his side.

He was born in Amsterdam on October 25, 1940 a son of Leon George and Mildred Morehouse Stangle and attended school in Broadalbin. Len was a lifelong area resident.

Mr. Stangle was employed as a turbine inspector at GE in Schenectady for eighteen years, retiring due to disability in 1989. Prior to working for GE, he worked at Acme Market in Amsterdam and Banta Bros. in Hagaman.

Len was an extremely talented woodworker. His love of this hobby beginning with building his own barn by hand, grew into creating intricate pieces with his scroll saw. He has left behind many beautiful heirlooms. He enjoyed maintaining his property, gardening and being outdoors. When he was younger, he loved camping, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling, boating, and motorcycling. Lenny had a huge love of animals. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time and creating memories with his family and friends.

Survivors include his wife, Linda Klug Stangle, whom he married on August 19, 1962; a son, Brian Stangle (Donna) of Broadalbin; a daughter, Michele Finch of Broadalbin; a brother, Leon "Mike " Stangle of Amsterdam; a sister, Lori (Matthew) Piska of Broadalbin; five grandchildren, Kara (Brandon) Rocha, Briana and Sarah Stangle, Zachary and Samuel Finch; two great-grandchildren, Hunter and Kaylee Rocha; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Calling hours will be held on Friday from 3 – 6pm at the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., 111 County Highway 106 (Corner of Route 29 & Black Street), Johnstown. A short service will follow at 6pm at the funeral home with Pastor Scott Baldwin, officiating. Burial will be in the spring at Union Mills Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the James A. Brennan Memorial Humane Society, in care of the funeral home.
