

Lester B. Weiderman

January 22, 1922 - April 29, 2016

Lester Weiderman, 94, of Broadalbin, died Friday April 29, 2016 at Baptist Health Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in Scotia. For the majority of his life, he lived within a few miles of the house where he was born in Broadalbin. Other times he lived close by in Perth, Gloversville, Pottersville, and Scotia. His career spanned fifty six years working at Fiber Conversion in Broadalbin which was supplemented with his master carpentry skills reflected in numerous buildings throughout the area.

Mr. Weiderman was a member of the Perth Bible Church.

Lester was a very kind man, a dutiful husband, an exceptional father, and was filled with good health and spirits to the very end. He was a superb role model for those who follow him.

The support staff at Baptist Health where he was provided excellent and compassionate care for his last few years considered him their good will ambassador among the residents.

He was predeceased by a son, Wayne Weiderman, Sr.

Survivors include his wife, Madeline Kenyon Weiderman; a son, Warren Weiderman; daughters Loretta Post and Claudia Weiderman; step-children, James Buell and Carol Lee, all of New York; a daughter, Sandye Vaughn of California; dozens of grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; and a large extended family.

Calling hours will be held on Monday from 5 – 8 pm at the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., 111 County Highway 106 (Corner of Route 29 & Black Street) Johnstown. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 10 am at the funeral home. Burial will be in Perth Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or to the Animal Protective Foundation of Schenectady, both in care of the funeral home.
