

Marilyn J. Swartout

May 22, 1941 - February 23, 2025

Marilyn J. Swartout, 83, of Rosewood Avenue, Johnstown passed away on Sunday, February 23, 2025, at Nathan Littauer Hospital in Gloversville.

She was born on May 22, 1941, in Yorkville, NY, a daughter to Mark and Cora Hoff Crandall and came to Gloversville as a child. Marilyn was a 1958 graduate of Broadalbin High School. She moved to Cobleskill in 1964 and lived there until moving to Johnstown 15 years ago.

Mrs. Swartout was employed for several years as a scheduler for Home Health Care Partners in Amsterdam.

She was very involved in crafting and enjoyed teaching toll painting when she lived in Cobleskill, Marilyn loved sewing and doing embroidery.

She married James Swartout in 1967. He died in 2016. In addition to her husband, Marilyn was predeceased by her parents.

Survivors include four children, John Michael (Nora) Porter of Poestenkill, Kim Hentnik of Broadalbin, Tamara (Steve) Berberich of Johnstown, and Mark (Jennifer) Porter of Sarasota, FL; a sister, Judy Simek of Waterford, NY; and grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Cremation was performed at Park Crematorium, Schenectady. In accordance with her wishes, there will be no services. Arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., Johnstown, NY.

Tribute Wall

SA

“ My most sincere condolences to all of Marilyn's family. We had such joy learning to tole paint with Marilyn, and the shenanigans never ended. Rest in peace, Marilyn! ”

---

Sharon L Aitchison - February 27, 2025 at 08:15 AM

KC

My heart goes out to Marilyn and family. She was exceptionally talented and creative, and she worked very, very hard. May she rest peacefully and may all know she left a heart-filled mark on the world around her.

---

Karen Clark - April 28, 2025 at 08:28 PM