“ For the Hoyt family, My heart broke today. Mary was my coworker for many years,, but most of all my friend. She was dedicated upbeat & on many days my rock. We opened at McDonald's together & it was a joy ! A family away from home ,, she would laugh at my family antics & I would at hers . I loved that she made me eggplant parm for my birthday & I was so happy my daughter was Todd's pen pal when he was in the service overseas. Years go by & we lose touch, however the love you have is always there. God bless ,, you were truly blessed to have Mary ! Condolences, Wynne
