“ Marylou will always have a special place in my heart. I don't know why but she often had a silent laugh or smile when I would talk to her or was just talking in general. Then I would say to her I know Marylou your thinking there goes that silly woman talking again.

“ What can I say about the quite, shy, friend with the beautiful smile, I helped take care of her at her home, and got to know her parents and family, The Richards were awesome people and cared deeply for Marylou, I enjoyed hearing about her and family, Whenever I took her for a weekend visit with Mom and Dad, she would run past me, take off her coat and sit on the couch, with a big smile, she was home. My husband and I took her out to dinner, and I think she thought he was her "date", she took his arm and sat next to him, smiling and say "yeah " when he talked to her. Marylou knew what made her happy, and she let us know also. She will be missed, but I think she is where she wants to be, with Mom and Dad, and Nutmeg.
