“ Michael and I became friends on Fb not that long ago, I believe just last year closer to the holidays. I was looking for a local man who was really good at playing santa clause. I was refered to Michael and little did I know his everyday posts of positive vibes and thoughts and so on would be an everyday thing i would look for... He left this earth not really knowing how many people he had such an impact on for all of his awesome positivity! Rest in Paradise my friend I am sure you will continue your great vines from up above!!!

“ *One of the best memories I have of Mike is when I bought my first road bike. For the first week I owned it we took turns riding the wheels off of it. We had so much fun, I really miss those days. Unfortunately family,jobs and life got in the way and we drifted apart. Always thought we would have time to get back together for more riding, fishing and laughs. You will be missed my friend
