“ Marcia,

We have lost touch, but I remember going to your house to play as cousins often do. I have thought of you, Michael, Carol, and David over the years. I am glad Mike had the support and care he needed.

“ Marcia and Family -

I feel very fortunate having known Michael - I will remember him as a man with a kind and gentle soul. I always enjoyed talking with Michael and hearing about the things he accomplished that day. I will miss him as will so many others.

Condolences,

Debbie Nolan
