“ Jim, David, and Randy, and of course Jim Sr., I'm so sorry to hear about Pat. I have so many childhood memories of you all... the dug-out fort in the woods, playing hide and seek, and Pat's ability to break up a fight between us kids without losing her cool. I remember the week you all moved to the neighborhood, probably about a year after we did. My mom, Margaret, and Pat spent a lot of time working on their tans together!

“ To all of Pat's family,

It is with great sadness that I learned of Pat's passing. I only knew Pat a few short years but she holds a special place in my heart. She was first person to invite me to sit with her on the beach. She & her friends embraced me & we all have cherished memories of times we spent in the garden or on the beach. All who knew Pat are so blessed she was in our lives. Pat you will always have special place on beach with us.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Pat's passing. Pat was a fun loving neighbor and friend. My fondest memories are of our all day shopping trips, and dinner with the girls. Loved walking up the street and finding her outside reading and of course getting that tan. Pulling up a chair or a step to visit, we would talk about everything in just a few minutes. My sincere condolences go out to the family. Hold tight to those special memories you have made over the years. In my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. Rosie

“ Dear Trish,

There are no words to describe how any of us are feeling. Shocked, lost, broken and saddened to say the least. You were the glue to this family in the most beautiful of ways. We will stay strong and keep moving forward with the strength from your love. Each and everyone of us knew how much you loved us- you showed us that so naturally and in your own special way, always leaving us feeling like the most important person in the family. I am both honored and lucky to have been your daughter in law for all these years. Thank you for opening up your heart to me and making me feel like your daughter rather than an in law, so many women are not as fortunate to have a relationship like ours. Your love and comforting words gave me confidence when I needed it. You not only understood me but believed in me.

Most importantly, Thank you for raising such a kindhearted and wonderful son, that I get to call my husband. He is a product of you and I will continue to cherish him the same way you did.

*All my love,
Lisa*
