“ We have wonderful memories of growing up and always going to Paula and Buddy’s house to play and visit. The “cousins” would get together and play kick the can, or some other game late into the night. As we got older, visiting was just as wonderful. Meeting with family never grew old and Paula was the centerpiece we all revolved around. We will miss her so very much. All here send their regards and prayers...including Jon Eric, Sondra, and Wade. Love you Paula!! Kim (Hoagboon) and John Grosse.

“ Paula and I were in the same HR. and English class senior year at GHS. She could NOT get a good word from our teacher, Jack, no matter how hard she tried. I, on the other hand worked for the nice man at his camp all year long and he took HIS time to help me ready for scholarship tests. Paula used to tease me that I was "brownin up ." ALL in fun. I will miss her.
