

Raina Joy Bailey

October 3, 1970 - August 11, 2025

Raina Joy Bailey, 54, of Gloversville, passed away unexpectedly at home on Monday, August 11, 2025.

She was born in Gloversville on October 3, 1970, a daughter of Beverly Green Morehouse and the late Jesse Litts and was a graduate of Northville High School. Raina attended Fulton-Montgomery Community College.

Raina enjoyed gardening and working with her houseplants. She was a talented jewelry maker and is remembered for her keen sense of humor.

Survivors include her mother, Beverly Morehouse; her children, David (Brianna) Strauser, III, Brandon (Amber) Finley, Isabella (Nathan) Knox, and Avery Johnson all of Gloversville; her siblings, Jennifer Bailey and Jeffrey Bailey of Gloversville and Mark Bailey; 7 grandchildren, Chloe, Isabella, Peyton, Rosie, Reylianna, Brandon, Jr., and Liam; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Raina's children would like to thank their aunt Jenny for the devoted care and love she always gave their mom.

Cremation was performed at Park View Crematorium, Schenectady. A celebration of life will be held and announced at a later date. Arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., Johnstown, NY.

“ Raina was an amazing person. I first meant her when we became foster sister in Northville! I believe she was 15 and I was 12. Raina was always my go to person whenever I needed advise on many different things. I can't believe she's gone ,but she's definitely in a better place now with no more pain. Love you always and forever until we meet again 🙏💔💔
