

Ronald B. Williams Sr.

March 14, 1953 - November 9, 2024

Ronald B. Williams, Sr., 71, of Birch Lane, Gloversville, passed away on Saturday evening, November 9, 2024, at home.

He was born in Niskayuna on March 14, 1953, a son of Robert and Emma Jean Bates Williams, and attended school in Broadalbin. Ron was a lifelong area resident.

At one time, he worked at Coleco Industries in Amsterdam and in various area leather mills. Later, he became a master carpenter and worked for Erwin Voss & Associates for nearly 20 years.

Ron was a former member of the Concordia Club and the Bleecker Fish & Game Club. He loved spending time at camp with his family and always enjoyed the simple things in life. When he was younger, Ron loved hunting and fishing.

In addition to his parents, Ron was predeceased by a sister, Katherine.

Survivors include five sons, Ronald Williams, Jr. (Stephanie) of Fultonville, Adam (Amanda) Williams of Gloversville, Gregory Williams of Johnstown, Kerry Williams of East Worcester, and Doren Gray of Gloversville; two brothers, Chris (Janet) Williams of Colonie and Jeffrey (Donna) Williams of Bleecker; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Cremation was performed at Park View Crematorium, Schenectady. In accordance with Ron's wishes, there will be no services. Arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., Johnstown.

“ My deepest condolences go out to Chris and Janet, and to Jeffrey - and to the boys, Ron Jr, Adam, Greg and Kerry. Ronnie was a wonderful man and an amazing cousin. We have been close since we were very little, and I can thank God for giving us all the amazing memories we made together. This world will not be the same without him in it, but he will always be as close as my heart. We have so much family to welcome him home. We all love you so very much!!
