Rosie was a sweetheart and a perfect match for Jerry. I knew Jerry when we were kids and I live now in my childhood home, across the roadway from their home. It's so hard knowing that they are not still there in our old neighborhood. They used to talk about moving to Florida when retired, but, then came those beautiful grandchildren and they decided to stay put. They both had a wonderful sense of humor and whenever I met up with her and Jerry, I started smiling before they even said anything. I hope that knowing how much they are missed and that I will never forget about them will give you some comfort. I will continue to pray for all of you, as I have been for her since Jerry passed.
