

Ruth A. Peacock

February 26, 1934 - August 5, 2022

Ruth A. Peacock, 88, of County Highway 110, Broadalbin, passed away on Friday, August 5, 2022, at St. Mary's Healthcare in Amsterdam.

She was born in Schenectady on February 26, 1934, a daughter of the late Earl and Marion Smith Merritt and was a graduate of Nott Terrace High School. After her marriage, Ruth lived in San Diego and later moved to Long Island when her husband was transferred with GE. She moved to Broadalbin in 1971.

Mrs. Peacock was employed at one time with GE. Later, she taught ceramics classes at her home. She was also employed at the former Peacock & Platt Machine Company in Johnstown.

She was married to Neil J. Peacock on June 28, 1957. Sadly, he died on September 3, 2001.

Survivors include a son, Timothy N. Peacock of Broadalbin; a daughter and son-in-law, Cynthia and Dave Francey of Lawton, OK; a grandson, Benjamin, and his wife, Kelsey Francey; and her feline companion, Boo.

In accordance with her wishes, services will be held privately for her family.

She will be buried at Barkersville Cemetery, Providence. Memorial contributions may be made to a local animal shelter.

Cemetery Details

Barkersville Cemetery

Southline Road
Providence, NY

Tribute Wall

LC

“ It has been a pleasure knowing you and you will never be forgotten Ruth.

Lott S Charles - August 14, 2022 at 10:12 AM

CB

“ I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. My condolences.

Cathe Bruno - August 10, 2022 at 01:41 PM