

Sandra M. Lair

August 1, 1943 - May 1, 2024

Sandra M. Lair, 80, of Locust Avenue, Tribes Hill, passed away on Tuesday, May 1, 2024, at Capstone Center for Rehabilitation & Nursing in Amsterdam. She was born in the town of Mayfield on August 1, 1943, a daughter of Ernest and Irene Richardson Warner and was educated locally.

As a young bride, Sandra would join her husband, Robert, as he served in the US Air Force. They lived in Greece, Utah, and Massachusetts, among other places, and moved to Bleecker in 1980. When her husband died, Sandra moved to Gloversville.

Mrs. Lair embraced the role of wife and mother, and also treasured being the pastor's wife. She served as part of the music ministry, the food pantry, and the buddy barrel at the Kingsboro Assemblies of God. Sandra also took pride in hosting missionaries and boarding pastors at home.

She enjoyed cooking and baking cakes and pies. Sandra also loved sewing and craft projects.

She was married to Robert Lair on October 3, 1959. Sadly, Rev. Lair died on April 21, 2016. In addition to her husband and parents, Sandra was predeceased by a son, Benjamin; a grandson, Nate Lair; two brothers, Bert Warner and Kurt Van Nostrand; and two sisters, Betty Coloney and Martha Potocki.

Survivors include three children, Michelle (Brett) Swart and Brett Lair, all of Gloversville, and Meloney VanHorne of Tribes Hill; a brother, Jay B. (Sue) Van Nostrand of Easton, PA; nine grandchildren; thirteen greatgrandchildren; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Cremation was performed at Park View Crematorium, Schenectady. A celebration of Sandra's life will be held at a later date. Arrangements are by the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home. Inc., Johnstown.
