June 25, 1978 - May 13, 2022

Stephen T. Pepper

Gloversville -- Stephen T. Pepper, 43, of Gloversville, passed away on Friday, May 13, 2022 surrounded by his loving family at Albany Medical Center.

Born in Amsterdam on June 25, 1978, he was a son of Glen E. Sr. and Judith A. Earley Pepper.

Stephen attended school in Northville and later at Cobleskill Community College.

He was first employed by Hudson Dyeing and Finishing. Later, Stephen worked for Taylor Made and most recently he was employed by Universal Warehousing, all in Gloversville.

Stephen loved his Irish heritage and outdoor activities, such as camping, hiking, and hunting. He also enjoyed horror movies and going to concerts. He was a talented musician and as a left-handed guitar player, he learned to play on a right handed guitar by turning it upside down. Additionally, he was an avid Minnesota Vikings fan. Stephen loved spending time with his family especially at family gatherings.

He was predeceased by his father, Glen E. Pepper, Sr.

Survivors include his wife, Elizabeth Colson Pepper whom he married on February 26, 2015; a daughter, Isabella Pepper; his mother, Judy Pepper of Northville; three brothers, Glen Pepper, Jr. and his wife, Cleo Strode of Northville, Brian Pepper of Fort Plain, and Christopher Pepper and his fiancée, Nicole of Hope; a sister, Angela Pepper (Jay Hanly) of Bleeker; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Cremation was performed at Park View Crematorium, Schenectady. A celebration of Stephen's life will be held and announced at a later date.

Arrangements are in the care of Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc. 111 County Highway 106 Johnstown.

“ Worked with Steve (and Liz) at Taylor Made for a couple years. He liked a lot of the same music I listen to. If my stereo was on he'd usually come over and ask "Who is that?" or "What are you listening to?" He was so easy to get along with and definitely one of the more likable people in that place.
