Peter, her son was a good friend of my son Chuck growing up. We always seemed to run into each other and catch up on life's happenings. She will be missed.*

“ What can I say I grew up with sue hung out together played together and had over night pajama parties. As of past few years we would take rides to places that we remember as kids, Northampton beach area. As all of us know she was the glue that kept our classmates together with our luncheons. Rip Sue you continue to be loved “ Susan aka Sunshine held a very special place in my late husbands heart. She worked at Ruby N Quiry with him and from the moment I met her I knew she was such a wonderful loving person. He always talked so highly of her. She definitely lived up to the nickname Sunshine in my eyes. Over the years she would reach out to me and we would keep up on Facebook. I know her and Jim will be catching up and looking down on us. I m so very sorry for Susan’s family and friends as I know her loss will leave a big hole.

“ When we graduated from High School, Sue had a party at her house. I remember arriving and Sue came running toward me. She yelled, “I got engaged “. I stopped and looked at her and said” Are you crazy? She started laughing and said , yes I am. I then asked if she was happy and she stated, yes I am. I told her that’s all that matters then.
