

Thomas J. Boswell

November 18, 1946 - August 15, 2025

Thomas J. Boswell, age 78, son of Robert and Helen Boswell, passed away on August 14, 2025, at his home in Broadalbin, NY. Tom was born in Amsterdam, NY on November 18, 1946. He lived most of his life in upstate NY, with a few years spent in North Carolina.

Following graduation from Wilbur H. Lynch High School, Tom served a short stint in the US Navy, then joined the family business roofing with Kaiser-Boswell Co.

Tom grew up around animals and jokingly admitted that he liked them more than he liked most people. He previously owned a hobby farm caring for horses, goats, cows, and rabbits and chickens until it was time for him to settle down with his beloved yellow lab, Buddy.

He enjoyed nothing more than watching videos of house panthers, baby goats, and donkeys. He could smoothly tell a joke like he had written it himself. He loved country music, hearing a chorus then searching relentlessly until he could find its name and artist.

He will be dearly missed by family, including his children Dr. Lorena "Lori" Langdon and Robert (Randi-Lynne) Boswell; his sister Linda DeWitt; grandchildren, Caylie, Ethan, and Breanna; three nieces and one nephew; as well as his close friends, Gordon (Marie) Schaufelberg and Ken DeWitt.

Services will be held privately. Arrangements have been made by Robert H. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc. Those wishing to make a donation in Tom's name are encouraged to give to their local animal rescue group.

“ I worked with Tom back in the 80s in Scotia. We shared many a story and a few pranks that made the day more enjoyable. We ran into each other in town for an over do catch up. I sure wikk miss him. RIP.
