We have been so sad since we heard about Tracey's illness and then her passing. Our hearts are troubled as we try to comprehend what has happened. I choose to remember her as a sweet woman that loved to smile and laugh and she loved her family with all of her heart. RIP Tracey. You will be missed. “ Tracy it has been many, many years since we've spent time together, but on occasion we would run into one another at church school. You were always a very kind hearted person and would do anything for anyone if you could. Until I saw you again at St. Joseph's for church school I had lost track of you and your path of life. It was surely true though that when we did see each other again that you had nothing but love for your husband and children. You beamed brightly while genuinely bragging about them and rightly so. I was so sorry to hear of your battle with this horrific disease and am happy that you are now free of all the pain. I pray for your soul and for your family at this trying time they are faced with. You were known and loved by so many and you know they will be there for them. They will stand strong for them and listen to them when needed. Rest in peace my friend from long ago. Fly with the angels in heaven. I know for a fact that you were welcomed with open arms the minute you arrived. Until we meet again Tracy.

“ *Dear Dan, Ian & family,
I am extremely saddened by the news of your wife and mom passing. As a new friend we hit it off really well (talking about family, soccer, camping, etc.) and had a great time together during a soccer tournament in Rhode Island this summer watching Ian and my son Matt play travel soccer. We had plans to hang out together and looked forward to spending many more weekends together. I remember all the family photos we shared at lunch and will never forget how happy and proud she was to have a great family. May all the great memories of Tracy be forever in your hearts! She will be missed by so many people. With deepest sympathy, Kim, Tim, Andy & Matt Ragosta (Valatie, NY)*

“ My friends:

No words can express how sorry I am that you are going through this at this time. I will always be grateful for Tracey's friendship, and to Dan for being so kind to me when I came to the hospice in Gloversville and giving me the chance to see her again before she was gone. Her parting words to me gave me a gift I will treasure until the day that I, too, go Home. Know that my family and I are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers, and stand ready should you need anything, at any time.
