

Vicki Lynn Tybor

September 29, 1957 - December 9, 2021

Vicki L. Tybor, 64, of Pleasant Street, Gloversville, passed away Thursday, December 9, 2021, at Nathan Littauer Hospital.

She was born in Gloversville on September 29, 1957, a daughter of Stephen and Vivian La Vada Manzer and attended school in Mayfield. Vicki was a lifelong area resident.

Vicki was a hard worker and worked at several area companies, including Samco Leather and St. Thomas Inc. She was also a certified nursing assistant. Vicki was employed as a knitter at Somerset Industries in Gloversville for the past thirty years.

She loved to shop and was a collector of dolphins and owls. Her happiest times were spent with family and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by a sister, Michelle Goodrich.

Survivors include her husband, Barry L. Tybor; three sons, David Hayes, Jr and Joseph Hayes, both of Gloversville, and Edward (Kayla) Coloney of Mayfield; a brother, Stephen Manzer; seven sisters, Norma Buseck, Brenda Lavery, Kerry Jo Manzer, Doralee Schuyler, Stacey Anderson, and Stephanie Achzet; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Cremation was performed at Park View Crematorium, Schenectady. Calling hours will be held on Friday from 4 – 6 pm at the Robert M. Halgas Funeral Home, Inc., 111 County Highway 106 (Corner of Route 29 & Black Street), Johnstown. A memorial service will follow at 6 pm with Linda Eastman, officiating. In accordance with current health guidelines, facial coverings are required at the funeral home.

“ I can't even begin to express how I feel, all I know is I miss you .. I couldnt imagine when I found out that God stole you from me TT, BUT I'm glad your not hurting anymore... I'd have to say the best part of being able to see you was well every part lol, but my favorite memory was when you would tell me everything's gonna be okay, when things were uneasy at home. You were always there for me and I'm just so sorry.... I pray your dancing up there, hug aunt Michelle for me Love and miss you.
