“ Walt, Martin and family

I am so sorry for the loss of Violet. You folks were always so good to me when I was staying with my Grandparents at 22 Collingwood ave..

I enjoyed seeing Violet and talking with her. She truly was A Christian inspiration in her life.

I think of you folks often. Martin I really enjoyed our friendship. I did not know of Violet's illness or death til just recently. I would have visited sooner if I knew.

You were all great friends and neighbors to my grandparents and my Aunt Mary. I know they truly felt blessed with you.

THis CHRistmas, I willtruly remeber the true meaning of this season because of my summer upbringings on Collingwood Ave.

*IN God's love
