“ I am his second daughter Debbie, My favorite memory of my father, was when I given birth to my daughter Raven Berg. He was right there through the whole process, even stayed in the icu with me and even went back and forth to Albany Med just to see my beautiful girl a few times a week, and also to bring her home. Ever since then Raven has been with him and his wonderful wife. There are many many other memories that I loved but that was the biggest one I loved the most
