

William H. Kennedy

April 11, 1937 - December 21, 2015

William H. Kennedy, 78, died at his winter home in New Mexico on Monday December, 21, 2015. Bill had lived in Stottville, NY before moving to Northville several years ago.

He was born in Troy on April 11, 1937 a son of Joseph and Martha Wood Kennedy and was a graduate of Catholic Central High School. Bill obtained his Master of Divinity degree from St. Anthony-on-Hudson in Rensselaer, NY in 1987. He belonged to several organizations including the American Correctional Catholic Chaplains Association and the Catholic Broadcasters Association. During his career, he had many roles all geared toward helping people.

Bill loved his family and enjoyed spending time with them. He loved to travel and was an avid student of history. He ventured to destinations including China and Italy, and always had wonderful stories to share. Bill loved to play golf and played whenever his time allowed. He enjoyed his winter home in New Mexico and the warm weather there.

He is survived by a brother, Joseph (Bernice) Kennedy; a nephew, Michael (Carol) Kennedy; three nieces, Mary Mott (Dan Wiktor), Kathleen (Harold) Asbornsen, Kerry (Mark) Billings; a great nephew, Zachary Kennedy; and three great nieces, Clara Kennedy, Erin and Emma Billings. He also enjoyed spending time with his many friends.
