“ While I hardly knew her, a precious memory I have of Katy is from a few years back when I was doing electrical work across the street, where Larry Yost used to live. It was early fall, and canadian geese had congregated on the lawn between her house and the Sweet farmhouse next door. Katy was out in the yard and very politely walking toward and talking to them, trying to shush them away. It was like she wanted to be nice and not offend them, yet get them to move. Condolences to everyone in her family. Doug Sieg

All the wonderful dinners picnics birthdays family reunions your wedding Laurie wonderful celebrations to always be cherished. Im so glad I was home when you had their 50th wedding anniversary. Buzzy came up to me and hugged me with his big bear hug and said Dalie I didn't think I'd ever get to see you again. He was always like my big brother him and Billy.
